FROM CENTRAL TRAIN STATION TO THE EVENT SITE

Take Bus 5A towards Husum Torv and get off at Nørrebrohallen, 2200Kultur

Public transportation is expensive and you will probably get fined if you don’t buy a ticket.

The best option is renting a bike. You can rent bikes in most bike shops. There are bike shops located all over Nørrebro.

Use the bike lane, if there is one. It is not allowed to bike on the side walk. Stay right..

FOOD & BEVERAGES

Your daily meal will be served at Café Le Rouge inside of Nørrebrohallen.

Show your official wrist band and state your name. Please, don't exploit this simple system. If you do, you harm your fellow footbaggers and the organizers.

All beverages consumed at Nørrebrohallen should be bought in Le Rouge except water.

PARTY

Weed is illegal in Denmark and so are all other drugs.

Smoking is prohibited indoor at the event sites, in restaurants, and in most bars. Exceptions are tiny brown bars. If in doubt, ask.

Drinking on the street is perfectly legal. 7eleven and other shops sell beer all night.

The cheapest option is usually KING BEER.
A stronger option is Guld Tuborg - known as the “Golden Lady”.

Clubs and bars ask often and randomly for ID. Bring your passport. Most casual bars will accept sneakers and shorts, but please change after competition and side-line activities for your own sake and for the sake of others. Fancier places require various degrees of dress-codes. If in doubt, ask the organizers.
FEEL SAFE IN COPENHAGEN

Copenhagen is a very safe city. The most common crime is bike theft, so unless you've brought your bike with you on the plane there's not much to worry about.

Should a situation emerge where you need to call the police, dial 112. They're almost guaranteed to speak English and they're almost guaranteed to be surprised if your call is not at least partially related to some form of bike crime.
